

EFFINGHAM PLACES TO VISIT OR HIKE

Map is from the Effingham archives-scale, accuracy, and distance are approximate.

1. Pine River Cherubini Preserve-follow the trail from Pine River Road trailhead to the South River-great for bird watching
2. Larry Leavitt Preserve-Rt.153-great for picnics; bird watching
3. Three hiking trails up to the summit of Green Mt. and the fire tower (also Hanson Top with a clear view of W & S mountain ranges)
4. Have a picnic or paddle at the Rt. 25 boat ramp
5. Bird watch on Huntress Bridge & Wilkinson roadside swamp areas
6. Walking trail with exercise stations at Effingham Elementary School
7. Walk or snowmobile trails at the Pine River State Forest
8. Walk area behind Effingham Transfer Station-interesting wetlands
9. Swim along Rt.153 roadside beach at Province Lake
10. Visit Effingham Dam on Ossipee Lake and the beginning of Ossipee River; off Iron Works Rd.-the island to the east of the dams are a great picnic place and walk area
11. Fish along South River, Pine River, & Ossipee River-on public lands
12. Visit Watts Preserve-Rt. 153-NH Audubon for bird watching; hiking and enjoy the Ossipee River
13. Mills Falls, across from the Fire Station, is spectacular in the spring
14. Visit Huckins Falls and Pond on Huckins Pond Road at the end of Wilkinson Brook
15. Hike into the Plantation from the bend on the hill on Colcord Hill Rd. Head to the right toward Taylor City or explore trails in Maine
16. Birth of the South River-a little dam on Province Lake
17. Heath Pond Bog Natural Area (Effingham/Ossipee)-Exemplary wetland, uplands, wild flowers, birds and habitat